

THE RITZ LONDON

Opened by renowned hotelier Cesar Ritz in 1906, The Ritz still today retains all the excitement and glamour synonymous with this legendary hotel. The only hotel to have been awarded a Royal Warrant by HRH The Prince of Wales for services to Banqueting and Catering. The 136 guestrooms combine Louis XV1 style interiors with modern day technology.

Now adjoining The Ritz, William Kent House, is one of London's last great town houses situated at No 22 Arlington Street and overlooking Green Park. William Kent House at The Ritz now provides a varied selection of venue space for elegant dining, bespoke meetings, weddings and gala occasions, offering the perfect setting for all types of private and corporate events.

Location

Perfectly located in a landmark position on Piccadilly in the heart of London's West End. Very close to theatreland, London's renowned museums and art galleries and the renowned shopping streets of Bond Street, Oxford Street and Jermyn Street. The nearest underground station is Green Park, which is on the Piccadilly, Victoria and Jubilee lines. The nearest airport is Heathrow and train station is Victoria mainline. Transfers can be arranged from any London station or airport.
