

THE RITZ LONDON

THE RITZ RESTAURANT

The Ritz Restaurant is considered by many to be the most beautiful hotel restaurant in the world. The vast floor to ceiling windows, the rich and varied use of soft pink, pale green and veined white marble, and the dazzling garlands of chandeliers reflected in the wall of panelled mirror, combine to create one of the most magical interiors in London, as charming by day as by night. West facing floor to ceiling windows overlook The Terrace, The Italian Garden and The Green Park and during the day, the sunshine enhances the interior brightness while in the low evening light, the circle of chandeliers and table candelabras create a magical reflection in the mirrors.

The Ritz Room, a small, private dining room with draped curtains screening it from the restaurant, offers secluded dining for up to 14 people, while The Restaurant Terrace, overlooking the pretty landscaped Italian Garden, offers further seating for diners during the warm summer months for al fresco lunches. And on Fridays and Saturdays, The Ritz Restaurant is host to 'Live at The Ritz', the offering a four course candlelight dinner and dancing to a live orchestra.

Executive Chef John Williams has been at the helm of the hotel's dining service for the past five years and had made it his mission to ensure The Ritz hallmark of excellence is delivered with every meal. This philosophy has never been more apparent than in The Ritz Restaurant with its rich culture of 'palace – style' food and
