

THE RITZ LONDON

IT'S CHELSEA FLOWER SHOW WEEK AT THE RITZ RESTAURANT

While London looks forward to the opening of this year's Chelsea Flower Show, The Ritz will be celebrating the city's most famous gardening event with a special 'Flower Menu' presented by Executive Chef John Williams. Using edible flowering plants for both decoration and flavouring, the Chef has created a special selection of dishes for The Ritz Restaurant during the week of the Flower Show.

The 'Flower Menu' includes the following choices

Terrine of Goose Liver with Spring Leaves, Viola and Pansies
Salad of Native Lobster with Citrus Jelly, Nasturtium and Passion Fruit Dressing

Stuffed Courgette Flower with Dublin Bay Prawns, Jasmine Scented Jus
Roast Fillet of Sea Bass with Fennel Pollen Liquorice Scented Jus
Roasted Sucking Pig with Baby Spring Vegetables, Garlic Leaf Potato Puree and Sweet Marjoram Jus

Financier with Caramelised Pears, Jasmine Scented Parfait and Bergamot Jelly
Hibiscus Scented Guanaja Chocolate Fondant with Hibiscus Sorbet
Nougat of Strawberry with Lychee and Rose Petal Sorbet

THE RITZ LONDON

And with the forecast looking good for a long hot summer, why not enjoy the fabulous food and the elegant ambience of The Ritz Restaurant from the beautiful al fresco surroundings of its open air terrace. Open throughout the summer season (from early May – weather permitting of course) the stunning landscaped terrace overlooks one of London’s prettiest royal parks and is the perfect spot to try Chef John Williams’ flower-filled lunch on a sunny day.

The Ritz Flower Menu is available from 24th to 30th May in The Ritz Restaurant, and on The Ritz Terrace – three course lunch menu for £39 and three course dinner menu for £48 per person.
