BARON PHILIPPE DE ROTHSCHILD AND THE RITZ LONDON PAUILLAC COLLABORATION

The Ritz London is proud to announce a unique wine partnership with Baron Philippe de Rothschild S.A., the leading Bordeaux wine company.

In summer 2009, The Ritz launches a new Pauillac wine produced by Baron Philippe de Rothschild from the 2006 vintage, and will become the first and only hotel to have its own bespoke wine, bottled and labelled in collaboration with the distinguished Baron Philippe de Rothschild wine company.

Pauillac, in the heart of the Medoc, is one of the most prestigious appellations of the Bordeaux region.

The Ritz Pauillac-Baron Philippe de Rothschild 2006 was especially blended at the Saint-Laurent-Medoc winery with selected grapes from the classic Bordeaux grape varieties of Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Malbec and Petit Verdot and Merlot.

Stephen Boxall, The Ritz Managing Director, said of this collaboration “We welcome our new partnership with the Baron Philippe de Rothschild, and we are delighted and honoured to be able to present The Ritz Pauillac-Baron Philippe de Rothschild 2006 for the pleasure and enjoyment our discerning guests and diners” .

Xavier de Eizaguirre, CEO of Baron Philippe de Rothschild S.A., also commented that “ This partnership with one of the finest hotels in the world, a legendary London rendez-vous of elegance, refinement and haute cuisine, is a very exciting prospect” .
